THE SCHOOL DISTRICT...

The Perry County School District is a public school district based in New Augusta, Mississippi, that is working to build a community of life-long learners by providing diverse educational opportunities.

THE COMMUNITY...

Two local towns, New Augusta and Beaumont, and several communities, including Janice, Runnelstown, Arlington and Mahned, make up the Perry County School District. Perry County is known for its rural setting that includes part of the DeSoto National Forest, Black Creek Wilderness and Leaf River Wildlife Management Area. Hunting, fishing, boating and camping are big recreational activities as well as youth and high school sports throughout the year. Gardening, farming, and raising livestock are also heavily participated in.

Perry County is considered part of the Hattiesburg Metropolitan area, and it is only 15-30 miles away from regional health services, two universities, event facilities, along with a variety of restaurants, shops, services, etc.
